COLLABORATIVE AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

FUNDACIÓN PARA EL FUTURO DE COLOMBIA

AND

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY OF WELLINGTON

The Fundación para el Futuro de Colombia (COLFUTURO) and Victoria University of Wellington in New Zealand (the University) share an interest in strengthening bilateral cooperation in the field of education between Colombia and New Zealand (country) and promoting stronger ties between the two institutions to increase the financial support available for graduate studies of Colombian students.

The purpose of this agreement is to foster cooperation and enhance the links between the two institutions through the provision of shared financing for talented Colombian students admitted to graduate degree programs at the University, within the framework of a Joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program.

The Joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program will operate as follows:

1. Colombian students interested in this Joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program will seek admission to the graduate degree programs offered by the University (Master’s and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) Degrees), following the normal application procedures and meeting all the standard admission requirements (including official language tests) established by the University.

2. Students admitted to graduate degree programs offered by the University will submit a Loan-Scholarship application to COLFUTURO following the normal application procedures and meeting all the standard requirements established by COLFUTURO.

3. Students who are offered a place for full-time graduate studies at the University and who are selected as beneficiaries of the Loan-Scholarship Program of COLFUTURO will be eligible or considered for the shared financing under this agreement.

4. The University will provide a discount of 20% off its international student tuition fee rate to all eligible students who enrol in a Master’s degree at the University. Tuition fees for eligible students who enrol in a PhD at the University, and who are resident in New Zealand for the agreed proportion of their candidature, will be charged at the New Zealand domestic tuition fee rate.

5. The University will offer the rates for the eligible students as specified in Numeral 4 for the duration of the student’s enrolment in that degree at the University.

6. COLFUTURO will provide the Loan-Scholarship to successful applicants as detailed in Annex 1, and in accordance with COLFUTURO’s policies and procedures, i.e. up to USD25,000 annually for a maximum financing of two years, up to USD50,000 per successful applicant.

7. The students are responsible for obtaining financial resources to cover other costs that are not included in or covered by the student's Loan-Scholarship agreement with COLFUTURO related to their program of study.

8. Each institution will designate a coordinator to implement and monitor this Joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program. In particular, the designated coordinators will be responsible for ensuring that:

a. the University and COLFUTURO provide prospective Colombian scholars with information on their programs of interest and guidance on how to apply to the University.

b. the University provides COLFUTURO with all the relevant promotional materials and brochures on the different graduate degree programs offered by the University to encourage interest among prospective Colombian students.

c. the University provides all Colombian students admitted to their graduate degree programs information on the Loan-Scholarship Program of COLFUTURO and encourages these students to contact and submit an application to COLFUTURO.

d. COLFUTURO informs the University of successful candidates by sending the list of Colombian students admitted to the University and selected as beneficiaries of the Loan-Scholarship Program of COLFUTURO.

e. COLFUTURO provides the University with institutional information on COLFUTURO and pertinent details on its Loan-Scholarship Program and the payment scheme (see Annex 1) and that the designated coordinator of the University ensures that relevant authorities of the University (i.e., bursars and student account offices) in charge of student accounts are aware of the terms of COLFUTURO’s Loan-Scholarship Program.

f. Both institutions make the necessary financial arrangements for confirmed scholars.

g. Both institutions have the obligation to inform the other party of any change in the designated coordinator or signatory in charge of this agreement.

9. The designated coordinators are:

For The University:
Julia Innocente-Jones
Assistant Vice-Chancellor (International)
e-mail: julia.innocente-jones@vuw.ac.nz
Phone number: 0064-4-4636000

For COLFUTURO:
Johanna Torres
Academic Advising Director
e-mail: johanna.torres@colfuturo.org
Phone number: (57)1 3405394 Ext. 124

10. Both institutions will promote the agreement to prospective Colombian graduate students.
This agreement shall remain in force from the date of signature by the designated representatives of each party and may be reviewed or renegotiated at the request of either party. Either party may terminate the agreement by providing at least thirty days prior written notice to the other party.

Annex 1
General Terms and Payment Scheme of COLFUTURO
Loan-Scholarship Program

1. COLFUTURO’s financing system consists of a Loan-Scholarship of up to USD25,000 annually for a maximum financing of two years up to USD50,000.

2. The applicants for the Loan-Scholarship determine the amount to be requested from COLFUTURO in accordance with COLFUTURO’s policies and procedures.

3. Successful applicants or beneficiaries of this program can use the Loan-Scholarship to cover the full or partial costs of their graduate studies abroad.

4. COLFUTURO’s Loan-Scholarship is granted in US Dollars. All payments to beneficiaries (i.e., settling allowance and living allowance) are done in US Dollars but COLFUTURO can pay tuition to universities in other currencies. However, COLFUTURO beneficiaries have the obligation to assume any discrepancy arising from foreign exchange fluctuations, between the US Dollar amount requested to COLFUTURO and the other currencies.

5. COLFUTURO’s selection process for the Loan-Scholarship Program is done yearly. Applicants can comply with documentary requirements when the on-line application becomes available by January 10th and up to February 28th. Results are published by the mid of May. These dates may change each call.

6. COLFUTURO notifies partner universities immediately regarding the results of the selection process by sending them the list of COLFUTURO beneficiaries admitted to their graduate degree programs.

7. Once students are selected and notified as beneficiaries of COLFUTURO, the latter arranges a meeting with the student to explain in detail, the terms and conditions of the Loan-Scholarship. The student who accepts these terms and conditions, decides the allocation of this Loan-Scholarship taking into account the maximum amounts mentioned in item 1. The beneficiary can allocate approved financial support on the following cost items:
   - Airfare
   - Settling Allowance (one-time payment of up to USD2,000)
   - Tuition fees and other fees, levies and charges payable by the student to the University
   - Health insurance
   - Living allowance (Up to USD1,300 per month. This amount can be increased by 25%, USD1,625, if student travels with family)
   - Textbooks and computer allowance (maximum USD2,000 per year)
   - Debtors insurance

   COLFUTURO provides each beneficiary with a sponsorship letter indicating the total amount of the loan-scholarship.

8. COLFUTURO clearly informs the beneficiaries, which of the above items are payable directly to them and to the universities or service providers.
9. COLFUTURO will pay the agreed portion of the tuition fees, and the other applicable fees, levies and charges payable by the student to the University (including health insurance, when this is included as part of the University's fees), directly to the University in two installments:

For those beneficiaries who begin their programs during the second semester of the year:

- First payment: November 15th, Student must submit the corresponding invoice to COLFUTURO not later than October 31st
- Second payment: March 15th, Student must submit the corresponding invoice to COLFUTURO not later than February 28th

For those beneficiaries entering during the first semester of the year, the payment scheme is vice-versa, first payment in March and second payment in November.

10. The students are responsible for obtaining financial resources to cover other costs that are not included in or covered by the student's Loan-Scholarship agreement with COLFUTORO related to their program of study.

11. The students have financial responsibility towards the University. COLFUTURO will pay on their behalf. After the final payment is made by COLFUTURO, any outstanding balance payable by the student to the University, including those resulting from exchange rate fluctuations, must be covered by the student and paid by the payment due date in accordance with the University’s Fees Statute.

12. Starting 2017, this loan turns into a partial scholarship when the student returns to Colombia and resides in the country for a pre-established period. In order to qualify for the scholarship, the student must comply with all the requirements previously agreed with COLFUTURO. The scholarship is granted as follows: 20% for MBA programs and masters in the fields of administration and law, and 40% for masters in all other areas and all doctoral programs. Two additional 20% bonuses can be given as follows:

   a. Beneficiaries who work full time in the public sector or as academic or researcher will receive 10% during the first year, 5% for the second year and 5% for the third year, to get up to 20%.
   b. Beneficiaries who work in a city different from Bogotá or its metropolitan area will receive 10% during the first year, 5% for the second year and 5% for the third year, to get up to 20%.

The loan component must be paid by the beneficiary on a monthly basis, upon his or her return to Colombia, according to the established amortization period, which cannot exceed a 5-year term.
