Dear Johanna,

This is to confirm that for the academic year of 2017 (January –December), The University of Sydney (Sydney) is pleased to participate in the COLFUTURO scholarship program by allocating seven (7) eligible students a one-off $10,000 scholarship payment towards tuition fees for Masters coursework programs.

The terms and conditions of the scholarship, funded through the University of Sydney's Vice Chancellor International Scholarship Scheme are as follows:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Selection will be based strictly on academic merit as per the University's admission requirements;
- Only applicants with unconditional offers of admission will be considered;
- COLFUTURO will select successful students on basis of a competitive process, and then COLFUTURO will provide Sydney confirmation of each student that COLFUTURO agrees to support pursuant to this letter of intent;
- Only applicants who are not citizens of Australia and New Zealand nor a permanent resident of Australia will be considered;
- Students who have already commenced their studies with the University of Sydney, are not eligible;
- Students applying for their second University of Sydney Degree will be eligible for the scholarships so long as they have not been recipients of a University of Sydney scholarship in their first University of Sydney degree.

CONDITIONS

- The scholarship will be a one off payment and will cover tuition fees only and no living allowance or other additional costs are payable;
- SYDNEY is subject to the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) (PIIP Act), and SYDNEY's privacy framework. The Parties confirm that SYDNEY will only be able to share with COLFUTURO information about a student (including enrolment details, financial statements, and academic results) if a student has given written consent to SYDNEY in relation to such information.

Successful candidates:

- Must not be in receipt of any other tuition scholarship or sponsorship from the University of Sydney or the Australian Government;
- Must commence study as per the Scholarship offer – deferment to a later semester is not permitted and will result in the forfeiture of the scholarship;
- Will be required to pay for their own airfares to Sydney, living expenses, study materials, text books, any ancillary fees (if applicable) and Overseas Student Health Cover each year;
- Are also responsible for paying the balance of tuition fees as applicable each year;
- Are required to enroll as full-time international students and must maintain their international student status on a full-time basis throughout their enrolment at the University of Sydney;

- May not be entitled to a Leave of Absence during the duration of the Scholarship, unless it is due to extenuating circumstances which the University will consider on a case by case basis; and
- May be asked to promote the Program in which they are enrolled as well as represent the University of Sydney at student orientation, marketing events and corporate networking events.

Our Recruitment Manager for Latin America, Mr. Carlos Meza (carlos.meza@sydney.edu.au) will be your point of contact for the administration of this scholarship scheme.

Please note that due to budgetary considerations, we can only make this scholarship offer to COLFUTURO students commencing their studies with the University of Sydney in 2017.

In Dec 2017, we will review the success of this scholarship offer to determine if we will participate in a 2018 scheme.

Kind regards,
