CORRESPONDENCIA - 03

The University of Malta (UM) of Malta and Fundación para el Futuro de Colombia (COLFUTURO) of the Republic of Colombia hereinafter designated as "The Parties";

DECLARE:

That this is their will to sign the present instrument, and they agree that the present amendment forms an integral part of the Collaboration between Fundación para el Futuro de Colombia and University of Malta signed by the Parties on 31st August, 2016.

Preamble:

Since the original Agreement between the Parties was signed in 2016, both the UM and COLFUTURO have worked in a highly cooperative manner for their mutual benefit. In recognition of the existing and mutual beneficial relationship between the UM and COLFUTURO, and in support of their aims of the COLFUTURO Loan Scholarship Programme, the Parties agree to complement item 4 to the Agreement:

Item 4 states:

4. The University of Malta will provide a scholarship of 20% of the tuition fees to all eligible students. This will be awarded in the form of a discount off the total annual tuition fee to be paid. If during the same selection process 10 COLFUTURO students enroll in the postgraduate programmes, the University will provide a 100% scholarship. Discounts or full waivers cannot be applied to the tuition fees payable for Programmes of a Joint/Collaborative/Dual nature that the University will be running jointly or in collaboration with another entity.

Amendment:

4.1 UM will provide a scholarship of 50% of the tuition fees to all eligible students. They will be awarded in the form of a discount of the total annual tuition fees. This Amendment shall be valid from the beginning of the academic year 2019/20 that is from the 1st October 2019.

COLLABORATIVE AGREEMENT
FUNDACI N PARA EL FUTURO DE COLOMBIA
AND THE UNIVERSITY OF MALTA

The Fundaci n para el Futuro de Colombia (COLFUTURO) and the University of Malta share an interest in strengthening bilateral cooperation in the field of education between Colombia and Malta and promoting stronger ties between the two institutions to increase the financial support available for graduate studies of Colombian students.

The purpose of this agreement is to foster cooperation and enhance the links between the two institutions through the provision of shared financing for talented Colombian students admitted to graduate degree programs at the University of Malta, within the framework of a Joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program.

The Joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program will operate as follows:

1. Colombian nationals interested in this Joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program will seek admission to the graduate degree programs offered by the University of Malta (Master's and Doctor of Philosophy Degrees), following the standard application procedures and meeting all the admission requirements (including official language tests) established by the University of Malta.
2. Students admitted to graduate degree programmes offered by the University of Malta will submit a Loan-Scholarship application to COLFUTURO, following the normal application procedures and meeting all the standard requirements established by COLFUTURO.
3. Students who are offered a place for full-time graduate studies at the University of Malta and who are selected as beneficiaries of the Loan-Scholarship Program of COLFUTURO will be eligible or considered for the shared financing under this agreement.
4. The University of Malta will provide a scholarship of 20% of the tuition fees to all eligible students. This will be awarded in the form of a discount off the total annual tuition fee to be paid. If during the same selection process 10 COLFUTURO students enrol in the postgraduate programmes, the University will provide a 100% scholarship. Discounts or full fee waivers cannot be applied to the tuition fees payable for Programmes of a Joint/ Collaborative/ Dual nature that the University will be running jointly or in collaboration with another entity.

5. The University of Malta agrees to offer this financial support for Master's students for a period of 2 year(s)(or one year in the case of one year programmes) and for PhD students for 4 year(s)
6. COLFUTURO will provide the remainder of the tuition fees, living allowance and will cover other related costs, in accordance with its policies and procedures, that is up to USD25.000 annually for a maximum financing of two years, up to USD50.000.
7. The students are responsible for obtaining financial resources to cover other costs (that are not included in this Loan-Scholarship agreement) related to their program of study.
8. Each institution will designate a coordinator to implement and monitor this Joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program. In particular, the designated coordinators will be responsible for ensuring that:
  - a. the University of Malta and COLFUTURO provide prospective Colombian scholars with information on their programmes of interest and guidance on how to apply at the University of Malta.
  - b. the University of Malta provides COLFUTURO with all the relevant promotional materials and brochures on the different graduate degree programs offered by the University of Malta to encourage interest among prospective Colombian students.
  - c. the University of Malta provides all Colombian students admitted to their graduate degree programs information on the Loan-Scholarship Program of COLFUTURO and encourages these students to contact and submit an application to COLFUTURO.
  - d. COLFUTURO informs the University of Malta of successful candidates by sending the list of Colombian students admitted to the University of Malta and selected as beneficiaries of the Loan-Scholarship Program of COLFUTURO.
  - e. the University of Malta will select from the list mentioned in Numeral 8 item d, the students who will be granted the University scholarship mentioned in Numeral 4, when the number of joint scholars is limited. The University will then inform COLFUTURO of this decision.
  - f. COLFUTURO provides the University of Malta with institutional information on COLFUTURO and pertinent details on its Loan-Scholarship Program and the payment scheme (see Annex I) and that the designated coordinator of the University of Malta ensures that relevant authorities of the University of Malta (i.e., bursars and student account offices) in charge of student accounts accept the terms of COLFUTURO's Loan-Scholarship Programme.
  - g. Both institutions make the necessary financial arrangements for confirmed scholars.
  - h. Both institutions have the obligation to inform the other party of any change in the designated coordinator or signatory in charge of this agreement.
9. The designated coordinators are:

Annex 1

General Terms and Payment Scheme of COLFUTURO's Loan-Scholarship Programme

1. COLFUTURO's financing system consists of a Loan-Scholarship of up to USD25.000 annually for a maximum financing of two years up to USD50.000.
2. The applicants for the Loan-Scholarship determine the amount to be requested from COLFUTURO in accordance with COLFUTURO's policies and procedures.
3. Successful applicants or beneficiaries of this programme can use the Loan-Scholarship to cover the full or partial costs of their graduate studies abroad.
4. COLFUTURO's Loan-Scholarship is granted in US Dollars. All payments to beneficiaries (i.e. settling allowance and living allowance) are done in US Dollars but COLFUTURO can pay tuition to universities in other currencies. However, COLFUTURO beneficiaries have the obligation to assume any discrepancy arising from foreign exchange fluctuations, between the US Dollar amount requested to COLFUTURO and the other currencies.
5. COLFUTURO's selection process for the Loan-Scholarship Programme is done yearly. Applicants can start complying with documentary requirements when the on-line application becomes available by February 1st and up to March 31st. Results are published between the last week of May and the first week of June each year.
6. COLFUTURO notifies partner universities immediately regarding the results of the selection process by sending them the list of COLFUTURO beneficiaries admitted to their graduate degree programmes.
7. Once students are selected and notified as beneficiaries of COLFUTURO, the latter arranges a meeting with the student to explain in detail, the terms and conditions of the Loan-Scholarship. The student who accepts these terms and conditions, decides the allocation of this Loan-Scholarship taking into account the maximum amounts mentioned in item 1. The beneficiary can allocate approved financial support on the following cost items:

Airfare

Settling Allowance (one time payment of up to USD2.000)

Tuition

Health insurance

Living allowance (up to USD1.300 per month. This amount can be increased by 25%, USD1.625, if student travels with family)

Text books and computer allowance (maximum USD2.000 per year)

Debtors insurance

COLFUTURO provides each beneficiary with a sponsorship letter indicating the total amount of the loan-scholarship.

8. COLFUTURO clearly informs the beneficiaries, which of the above items are payable directly to them and to the universities or service providers.

9. COLFUTURO pays annual tuition and fees (and health insurance, when this is included as part of the University's fees) directly to the universities in two installments:

For those beneficiaries who begin their programmes during the second semester of the year,

- 1) First payment: November 15th, Student must submit the corresponding invoice to COLFUTURO not later than October 31st
- 2) Second payment: March 15th, Student must submit the corresponding invoice to COLFUTURO not later than February 28th

For those beneficiaries entering during the first semester of the year, the payment scheme is vice-versa, first payment in March and second payment in November.

10. The students are responsible for obtaining financial resources to cover other costs (that are not included in this Loan-Scholarship agreement) related to their programme of study.
11. The students have financial responsibility towards the University; COLFUTURO will pay on their behalf. After the final payment is made by COLFUTURO, any outstanding balance, including those resulting from exchange rate fluctuations, must be covered by the student.
12. This loan turns into a partial scholarship when the student returns to Colombia and resides in the country for a pre-established period. In order to qualify for the scholarship the student must comply with all the requirements previously agreed with COLFUTURO. The scholarship is granted as follows: 20% for MBA programmes and masters in the fields of administration and law, and 40% for masters in all other areas and all doctoral programmes. Two additional 20% bonus can be given as follows:
  - a. Beneficiaries who work full time in the public sector or as academic or researcher will receive 10% during the first year, 5% for the second year and 5% for the third year, to get up to 20%.
  - b. Beneficiaries who work in a city different from Bogotá or its metropolitan area will receive 10% during the first year, 5% for the second year and 5% for the third year, to get up to 20%.

The loan component must be paid by the beneficiary on a monthly basis, upon his/her return to Colombia, according to the established amortization period, which cannot exceed a 5-year term.
