Dear Jerónimo Castro Jaramillo,

Re: Addendum to the Collaborative Agreement between COLFUTURO Fundación para el futuro de Colombia and The University of Warwick

COLFUTURO and The University of Warwick have a longstanding collaborative agreement dating from 2003, through which the University has welcomed a significant number of outstanding Colombian beneficiaries into a wide variety of academic disciplines.

In recognition of the long-standing collaboration and partnership, a number of academic departments within the University have been providing substantial additional financial support to COLFUTURO beneficiaries. In particular, the departments of WMG (Warwick Manufacturing Group) - the largest multi-disciplinary education and research department in the Faculty of Science, and WBS (Warwick Business School) - one of the largest business schools in Europe.

Both departments would like to formalise the financial support being provided through departmental tuition fee scholarships to COLFUTURO scholars by adding an addendum to the current agreement.

1. WMG will provide scholarships worth 50% of the tuition fees to all COLFUTURO beneficiaries studying on full-time Masters courses within WMG:

- MSc Cyber Security Engineering
- MSc Cyber Security and Management
- MSc e-Business Management
- MSc Engineering Business Management
- MSc Healthcare Operational Management
- MSc Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- MSc International Technology Management
- MSc International Trade, Strategy and Operations
- MSc Management for Business Excellence
- MSc Manufacturing Systems Engineering and Management
- MSc Programme and Project Management
- MSc Service Management and Design
- MSc Smart, Connected and Autonomous Vehicles
- MSc Sustainable Automotive Engineering

2. WBS will provide scholarships of 50% of the tuition fees to all COLFUTURO beneficiaries studying on full-time Masters courses (including full time MBA) within WBS:

- MSc Business with Accounting & Finance
- MSc Business with Consulting
- MSc Business with Marketing
- MSc Business with Operations Management
- MSc International Business
- MSc Business Analytics
- MSc Management
- MSc Human Resource Management & Employment Relations
- MSc Management of Information Systems & Digital Innovation
- MSc Marketing & Strategy
- MSc Finance
- MSc Accounting & Finance
- MSc Finance & Economics
- MSc Financial Mathematics
- MSc Business & Finance
- MBA

3. The University of Warwick will provide scholarships worth 20% of the tuition fees for COLFUTURO beneficiaries studying on any other Masters courses across the University.

In order to be eligible for these awards, scholars should have an unconditional offer of a place on a full time postgraduate taught course delivered at the University of Warwick for entry in 2019/20, 2020/21 or 2021/22.

A comprehensive list of Warwick's Masters courses can be found here:
<https://warwick.ac.uk/study/postgraduate>.

Tuition fees are published in advance and can be viewed at:
warwick.ac.uk/services/academicoffice/finance/fees/postgraduatefees.

There is no restriction on the number of COLFUTURO beneficiaries joining any programme.

We very much look forward to continuing our strong working relationship with COLFUTURO to help enable the brightest Colombian students fulfil their potential through Masters courses at the University of Warwick.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Chris Twine
