The Fundación para el Futuro de Colombia (COLFUTURO) and The University of Queensland (UQ) confirm that under the existing Collaborative Agreement signed in October 2016 and expiring 31 December 2021, the following arrangement for Master's coursework students has been agreed:

- Students who are offered a place for full-time graduate studies at UQ in a Master's coursework program and who are selected as beneficiaries of the Loan-Scholarship Program of COLFUTURO will be eligible or considered for the shared financing under the agreement.
- UQ will provide a 20% fee reduction of the published tuition fees to all Master's coursework students who have been selected by COLFUTURO for the Loan-Scholarship Program.
- UQ will offer this financial support for Master's coursework students for a maximum period of two year(s).
- COLFUTURO will provide the remainder of the tuition fees, living allowance and will cover other related costs, in accordance with its policies and procedures, i.e. up to USD25.000 annually for a maximum financing of two years, up to USD50.000.

The designated coordinators for this Addendum will be those identified in Clause 11 of the Collaborative Agreement.

All other terms, conditions and responsibilities documented in the Collaborative Agreement between the Fundación para el Futuro de Colombia (COLFUTURO) and The University of Queensland (UQ) will apply to Master's coursework students (where applicable).

This arrangement shall enter into force on the date of its signing by both institutions, and will be subject to review and renewal in accordance with the Collaborative Agreement.
